You are bidding on superb Porsche 914 - 2.0. This survivor is a very rare find, there aren't many left in this condition. It has the much desired appearance alloy wheels. The car has had one repaint (original color) to excellent standards, the interior appears to be original with one small repair to the drivers have the original style fabric to re-cover that bolster if you wish. Rust is not an issue on this car, see the photos, I have many more showing the comm happy to email to interested bidders. Mechanically the car outstanding, $3,000.00 was just spent at Automobile Atlanta to repair what was needed, the carbs and replacing the head gaskets. I will be happy to email a PDF of the invoice to you. The shift linkage was also rebuilt with new bushings, making With early 914s selling for $50,000 this classic is a rare chance to invest before prices increase dramatically. There is a scratch on the hood that will not be sold as is, where is. Independent inspections are encouraged and welcome. Bid with confidence and good luck.
